A young 4-H member proudly totes a blue ribbon while enjoying a corn dog.
- 11. 4-H Girl (1997, Dennis Roghair)
Another blue ribbon winner; this 4-H member is proud of her achievement.
- 12. Read! The Adventure Begins...(1999, Dennis Roghair)
After finishing his favorite book, a young reader’s imagination runs wild.
- 13. Chef (1989, Johnny Hunter)
A little chef stands ready to delight diners outside the Home Improvement Building.
- 14. Grizzly (1991, Dennis Roghair)
The first tree sculpture by resident artist Dennis Roghair, “Grizzly” is a State Fair mainstay, greeting guests with a roar as they stroll through the main gates.

- 15. Patience is a Virtue (1994, Dennis Roghair)
Mother and infant pause amid the crowd as the family catches up.
- 16. Minnesota’s Wild (2005, Justin Howland)
Wildlife mischief abounds when a duck, fish, bear, eagle and frog come out to play in this detailed sculpture.
- 17. Faring Well (1993, Dennis Roghair)
While enjoying the fair with her father, a young girl stops to pick up a lost coin.
- 18. Clown with Balloons (1988, Johnny Hunter)
Brightly dressed with a creative paint job from a few young 4-H’ers, this clown carries a bunch of colorful balloons to match his clothes.
- 19. Peace in the Heartland (2005, Perry Carlson)
These heartland bears flash peace signs while resting against a beautifully crafted branch.
- 20. Seed Corn (2005, Joseph Moudry)
Donated by the Enestvedt Seed Company in 2005, this proud farmer hoists a sack of corn seed in honor of the farmers who feed the world.
- 21. Pronto Pup (1996, Dennis Roghair)
This sombrero-clad Pronto Pup celebrates his 62nd year at the fair. Salsa with your dog, anyone?
- 22. From His Bounty (1991, Dennis Roghair)
A proud and humble Native American gives thanks for the abundant nourishment of the Minnesota wilderness.
- 23. Statue of Liberty (1986, Steve Dow)
Created for the 1986 Minneapolis Aquatennial and donated to the State Fair in 1997, this Minnesotan Lady Liberty look-alike honors the pioneer women of our state.
- 24. Taste of the Lakes (2005, Joseph Moudry)
A majestic eagle soars over a curious bear in this scene of Midwestern beauty.

See the 2009 Wood Working Champions!

If you love the beautiful wooden tree sculptures that highlight the fairgrounds, marvel at the winners of this year's wood working competitions in the Education Building.

The 2009 Minnesota State Fair features more than 25 different classes of wood projects. Various classes include benches, picnic tables, bat and bird houses, garden arbors and more.

These projects are the work of kindergarten through 12th grade students from Minnesota schools.
